

ACCURINT

When appropriate, Accurint (www accurint.com) is one of the tools that can be used to locate a defendant. Many times when the defendant's name is typed in, it may also show their SSN or their date of birth, along with their most recent addresses. The more information that is typed into the Accurint search engine (name, date of birth, etc), the more narrowed down the search is, which makes finding the correct person easier.
